We are a K-8 school with very high expectations for behavior on our campus. Pendergast is a Boys Town School. We have a grant SRO that works with all students to provide decision making skills and resources for all students. Part of our curriculum is to teach students skills they will need for life. These social skills are taught daily. They are embedded into instruction. All teachers have been trained in Boys Town. We have on site consultants who provide feedback to the teachers on implementat
